Everdure GUARANTEES ALL of its WOOD AGAINST Failure from ROT or TERMITES for 30 YEARS AFTER INSTALLATION!

Assure yourself of permanent satisfaction by dealing with EVERDURE.

Everdure'S MAN OF WAR QUALITY, HERCULES PLANK FENCE

6" half-round posts and 4½" half-round rails. Good-looking and never requires painting although painting is easy. Hercules Plank fences are far stronger than any ordinary plank fence — so strong in fact that the posts can be spaced 10' apart instead of the customary 8'. That means 25% less cost in installation. Furthermore, no cap plates have to be nailed on. All that and still a cost saving as compared with ordinary plank fences. As with all other Everdure products a free replacement will be furnished for any part destroyed by rot or termites within 30 years after erection.

Everdure'S MAN OF WAR QUALITY, "CHESTNUT REPLACEMENT" FENCE

There are thousands of miles of chestnut rail fence that is falling down from rot and termites. EVERDURE can furnish a strong, 30 YEAR GUARANTEED Split Rail Fence of dark color and similar informal appearance. Horses won't chew the rails.

Everdure'S MAN OF WAR QUALITY, RAIL FENCE is similar in appearance to the above picture except that the posts and rails are smooth, round and tenoned together. This fence is strong, trim and formal looking.

As many out-of-state horsemen are still unacquainted with Everdure, we are offering, temporarily, to absorb all or a considerable part of the cost of shipping!

PRINCE DARE was bred to be a stayer and in his short career indicated emphatically that he measured up to the pattern of his bloodlines. He won four races as a juvenile and earned $64,375. In taking the mile-and-a-sixteenth Maryland Gold Cup, he defeated such good runners as Royal Bay Gem, Ram o' War, Scimitar, Fly Wheel and Navy Page.

PRINCE DARE'S first two crops totalled but six runners and all have won. MILADY DARES and NORA DARES have won stakes. Among his winners in 1959 were the two-year-olds DOUBLE DARE and DARINGQUETTE. PRINCE DARE'S remarkable record to date has attracted many breeders, but a few services still are open for 1960.

Maryland Derby Nominees

Creswood Dottie, owned by Paul Cresci of New Jersey and trained by Bowes Bond of Savage, heads a field of 20 Maryland-bred three-year-olds named for the third running of the $15,000-added Maryland Derby here on April 30.

The Maryland Derby will be the last of six stakes to be offered during the session ending on May 3.

Creswood Dottie has been in training here with the Derby her main objective. She bounded into prominence at Laurel last fall by winning the Maryland Futurity at six furlongs, then moved over to Pimlico where she won the Pimlico Breeders' Stakes at a mile and a sixteenth.

In all, the chestnut filly won five races in ten starts to earn a tidy $21,845. She was bred by Col. H. B. Marcus at Glade Valley Farm, Walkersville, and is by Call Over out of Virginia Beach.

Alfred Vanderbilt, who won the Maryland Futurity in 1958 with the Native Dancer filly, Sir This Out, has nominated two Maryland-breds for the one mile stake. They are Idolater and Pilgrimage. The former finished second to Francis S. in the Governor's Gold Cup at Bowie.

Another home-bred with promise is Jouett Shouse's Tuscan, trained by Bernie Bond. He is by Tuscany out of the former Shouse star, East. Alan Clarke also has a filly with championship potential in Lee Mowlee, by Fritz Maisel out of Miss Finale.

The Maryland Derby nominees:

Adapt, Bad Man, Chromatic, Cold Cut, Comet Foot, Creswood Dottie, Donna River, Elba, Idolater, Knight-King, Lady's Maid, Lee Mowlee, Little Limey, Noops, Pilgrimage, Royal Pincher, Star Buckle, Tuscan, Tuscany's Pride, Vanairess.

Report Your Foals

Blanks for the reporting of Maryland-bred foals have been mailed out to all farms of record. It is requested that breeders report all their foals on these forms which are forwarded to The Blood-Horse after checking at this office. Double Brandy's Half Brother

Prince Aly Khan's Tais Toi, a half brother to the Maryland stallion, Double Brandy, scored his sixth straight victory in France on February 28.

The four-year-old colt, by Shut Out—Tien Lan, by Blue Larkspur, won a hurdle event at 1 $\frac{1}{8}$ miles at Auteuil.

According to William Fain, Paris correspondent of the Morning Telegraph, Prince Aly Khan has not named the colt for any of the big 1960 jumping events, but will run him in any races for which he is eligible, over obstacles or on the flat.

There is an interesting relationship in breeding between the stakes-winning jumper Banner Waves and Tais Toi.

Banner Waves, a half brother to Tais Toi's dam, Tien Lan, is by Swing and Sway.

Tais Toi is by Shut Out.

Both Shut Out and Swing and Sway are by Equipoise.

Yearling Show at Timonium

Entries close Thursday, April 28. Breeders who have yearlings they plan to exhibit are requested to name their entries as early as possible.

The Association's 32nd Annual Meeting will be held on Thursday, May 12, at Pimlico, after the races.

Election of Board of Directors will be held at this meeting.

Turf NOTES and NOTIONS

by RALEIGH BURROUGHS

MARCH PUT ON THE lion act for which it is noted, and was snarling and clawing around for awhile, but that world-famous lion tamer, Donald Lillis, walked right into the glass-enclosed cage and looked it in the eye.

Toward the end of the meeting, Mr. Lillis had old March purring like a pussycat—not before it had eaten up 75 per cent of the favorites, though.

In spite of a few cancellations, the Bowie meeting was a lot of fun. There was some real decent racing, the Prices of Timonium stowed away something like 100 grand with their splendid colt, Yes You Will, and a horse named Banner Bond won and paid $239.80. Some very fine people benefited.

As last month's MARYLAND HORSE went to 64 pages, my after-publication coma lasted much longer than usual. I don't remember anything that happened before March 16. Mr. Otis Smith, editor of the Ellcott City Times called and said he was going to devote a page to Howard County horse farms, and would like some aid.

March 18. Had lunch with Mr. Smith, discovered he was an old Towson boy and turned Joe Hickey loose on him. Soon, the open places in Mr. Smith's story were filled in. (And where's that paper you were going to send me, Mr. Smith?)

March 19. Took the Pennsylvania flyer to Bowie for the Governor's Gold Cup, won by Francis S.

Alfred Vanderbilt's *Mahmoud colt, Idolater, finished second and a lot of Marylanders who remember another Vanderbilt gray will be watching this fellow from here on out—out Kentucky way, that is.

Ran into the quondam Squire of One Dixie Drive, Humphrey S. Finney, with Brigadier Scott, prominent British horse authority. Brigadier Scott had the opportunity to look over Warfare at Santa Anita, and doesn't think the colt will take the Triple Crown.

The Squire was too busy bragging about his newest grandchild to pay much attention to the discussion.

March 24. Bowie again, to attend racing writers meeting. Much was accomplished—I think.

March 25. Was awakened very late at night by flight of wild geese. Could hear them, distinctly, telling me they had left Pea Island, N. C., to give the channel bass room to move in. The birds hurried away before I could get full particulars. Arose, checked reel, and made note to buy new line.

March 26. Where else would one go on a sunny afternoon in March but Bowie? Drove down alone, except for five ladies. You'd think that, in a group like that, the conversation would go to shoes, hats, coats and other ornaments ladies hang on themselves, and not to horses.

You'd be thinking right.

The Campbell was everything a loyal Marylander could ask for. The Maryland-bred Yes You Will made a spectacular move and appeared ready to win by eight or a dozen lengths. He allowed Restless Wind to get back some of the margin in the late stages to make the race interesting.

The scene in the winner's circle was about what it will be in Iran if the Shah ever gets a son.

There were no pyrotechnics, but everyone seemed to have fireworks going off inside him.

L. Franklin Price and his wife Edith, in whose name Yes You Will is registered, beamed with joy. Trainer Roddy Myers was "too happy to think," and Jockey Larry Adams did a tight-rope walk on the rail back to the jocks' quarters.

Mr. Price set a nice example to other owners of stakes winners by sending a case of champagne to the press box.

After the races, enjoyed pleasant party hosted by Bowie's personable general manager, Mr. Jack Loomer, and hostessed by the even more personable Mrs. Loomer (and pretty, too).

March 29. Early a.m. More geese. These told me in words of one onk that the channel bass definitely were in, and demanded to know what in the blazes was I doing in Towson, when I should be down at Cape Point.

Plans are being made.

THE MARYLAND HORSE

Sportswriters On Scholarship Committee

Spencer J. Drayton, Executive Secretary of TRA, recently named three sportswriters who will act on the 1960 TRA-Grantland Rice Scholarship Selection Committee. They are: John Chandler, Associated Press; Charles Hatton, columnist for the New York Morning Telegraph and Daily Racing Form and Shirley Povich, columnist for the Washington Post.

The committee, which also includes TRA President John G. Cella, Treasurer John A. Morris and James D. Stewart, a Director and past-President, will meet at Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tennessee, on Tuesday, May 10, to select the 1960 recipient of the TRA's four-year, all-expense scholarship.

Four young men are already attending Vanderbilt on the scholarship which was created to honor the memory of Grantland Rice and to discover, educate and train young men who want to become sportswriters. They are: Charles "Chuck" Nord of Wappingers Falls, N. Y., now in his senior year and editor-in-chief of The Hustler, Vanderbilt student newspaper; Tom Templin of Lexington, Kentucky, a junior and staff member of The Hustler; Larry Daughtrey of Abilene, Texas, sophomore and also a reporter on The Hustler and freshman, Roy Blount, Jr., of Decatur, Georgia.

The scholarship provides $1,800 annually for four years to cover expenses at Vanderbilt which was Grantland Rice's alma mater. It also provides $500 each year for summer employment. Deadline for applications for the scholarship, Drayton pointed out, is December 15, each year and, he said: "preliminary applications should be made directly to James L. Buford, Director of Admissions at the Vanderbilt University College of Arts and Science.

"Each year there are from 80 to 90 applicants for the scholarship," Drayton said. "From that number Dean Buford screens the top ten. A complete file on each applicant, with his high school scholastic record and a sample of his writing, is furnished each member of the selection committee for study. The committee then votes a secret ballot. Remarkably enough, each year so far, the final choice has been unanimous."

Finish of the Bowie Handicap. Yes You Will, Maryland-bred star of the Bowie meeting, finished in first place, but was disqualified and placed fourth. The winner's share went to Alfredo Stable's Charlesgate (No. 6). Open View was placed second; Mystic II, third.

THE RACING SCENE

by JOE B. HICKEY, JR.

AND HOW HE DID!: Upon the disqualification of Mrs. Edith L. Price's Yes You Will in the Bowie Handicap, consideration was given to hanging a black crape on the door of the Knotty Pine Restaurant in Timonium by certain of the prankster element which frequents the Prices' York Road establishment.

There being no dart board for between-grounds entertainment at the Knotty Pine, the funsters among the clientele amuse themselves by tossing pointed barbs at the proprietor. Many of Louis Franklin (Bake) Price's customers are horsemen, and they like to rib him about Yes You Will.

The object of this hazing is to get Bake's goat, and the players know that they have scored big when their host waves a white towel from behind the sanctuary of the mahogany and announces, "Yes You Will is my wife's horse. If you want to know why, ask her."

Long before residents of Timonium had heard of the Land of Sky Blue Waters, word got around that the price of a Gunther or National Boh entitled the buyer to inform the proprietor how to manage Yes You Will. He was given free advice on when and how to run the colt and who should ride him.

The signal for the game to begin comes when a stool jockey announces, "Wow, that was a lousy ride that boy gave your horse, Bake." Then the wolves move in and immediately Bake finds himself on the defensive.

Yes You Will is an honest horse, finishing first more often than not, but the colt's punctuality does not deter the Upper York Road Needlework Society from convening.

There must have been times when Bake Price considered selling the horse to gain deliverance from this abuse. But all the taunts were forgotten when Mr. and Mrs. Price hurried to the winner's circle following the running of the $115,400 John B. Campbell, Maryland's richest handicap, March 26. It was a moment for the Prices, Timonium and all Maryland to cherish.

It was that time of enchantment when the pumpkin was transformed into a shimmering coach.

To all outward appearances, Trainer E. Rogers (Roddy) Myers has built up an immunization to needling. Aside from an expression which might cause an interloper to presuppose that the trainer's shoes were too tight, Myers tossed off all the advice that came his way and continued to condition Yes You Will in a carefully conceived plan. When, under prodding, he admitted to Racing Writer Snowden Carter of having a "secret formula," he was placing a weapon in the hands of the wiseacres. While they laughed heartily, Myers went on his way, but not before stating in very deliberate tones, "Yes You Will is the best sprinter in America, bar none."

Well, the Campbell has come and gone and they aren't laughing at any more. They are laughing with. And now Bake Price, like George Liberace, can laugh all the way (next door) to the bank.

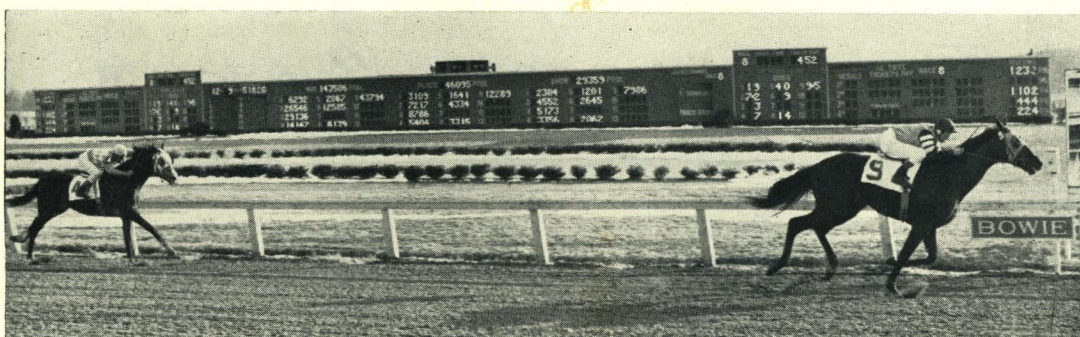

Yes You Will made his 1960 debut in the Abraham Lincoln at six furlongs on February 12, opening day. Under Jockey Larry Adams, the four-year-old posted a two-length victory over Charlie Boy and Tinkalero. Eight days later he came back in the Burch Handicap to register handily over Tinkalero and Charlie Boy.

His objective was the Campbell and his schedule took him next to the Southern Maryland Handicap on February 27. A prohibitive choice for the seven-furlong feature, he lost the lead in the stretch when Jockey Howard Grant (Adams had suffered a shoulder blade separation) had to concentrate on keeping the colt from bearing in. Mystic II outfinished him by three-quarters of a length as Nahodah accounted for third money.

On March 12 came the Bowie Handicap and the crape hangers. On a good track, Yes You Will stepped the mile and a sixteenth in 1:46 1/5, gaining the lead in the stretch to neck Charlesgate at the wire. After unsaddling, Jockeys Henry Block (Charlesgate), Ray York (Open View) and Arthur Chambers (Mystic II) claimed foul, charging that Yes You Will had bore in and crowded their mounts in the drive. Following a review of the films, Yes You Will was disqualified and placed fourth.

The official placings made Alfredo Stable's Calumet castoff, Charlesgate, the winner; Elkcarn Stable's Open View, second; C. Mahlon Kline's Mystic II, third; and Yes You Will, fourth.

Myers disputed the ruling of the stewards, who admitted it was a borderline case. However,

Francis S. cakewalked in the Governor's Gold Cup at Bowie, winning easily by 4 1/2 lengths. Alfred G. Vanderbilt's Idolater finished second in the seven-furlong race; Playgoer was third.

Bob Horwood, Morning Telegraph-Daily Racing Form columnist, and others who viewed the films, took the stand that there were not sufficient grounds for disqualifying the horse.

For the $100,000 John B. Campbell, March 26, Yes You Will was assigned 115 pounds, six less than carried by the three topweighted starters, Llangollen Farm's Restless Wind, Mrs. Tilyou Christopher's Amerigo and Calumet Farm's On-and-On. It was unquestionably the best balanced major handicap field of the new season.

Ten started. Favoritism went to the obstreperous Amerigo, which disappointed the large paddock gathering when he failed so much as to "whiten his eyes."

Jockey Adams, to his own satisfaction recovered from his shoulder injury (but not to his physician's) had returned to the saddle a week early to whip himself into shape to ride Yes You Will. He "worked over" the colt before being loaded into the gate but despite this precaution the Price horse was out-broken by the majority of the field. Willie Shoemaker, aboard Restless Wind, "sent" his mount at the bell, angling over from his No. 10 position in a bid to gain the rail before hitting the turn.

Adams, breaking from No. 2, was on the inside going into the turn and had to steady to avoid a traffic jam. Then he gunned his mount on the outside and Yes You Will ran like a Quarter Horse at 440 yards the rest of the way. Getting none the best of it on the outside, he charged relentlessly at Restless Wind, getting the lead on the turn for home. He quickly opened daylight, and though he has the reputation for pulling himself up when in the clear, Adams was in full command. Restless Wind seemed to come again through the stretch but there was no catching the Price color-bearer this time. He crossed under the wire a length and a quarter clear of the Llangollen colt. Amerigo, the peripatetic one, broke slowly, picked up horses along the way, but at no point threatened the first two. On-and-On didn't have it when Steve Brooks put him under pressure. He just failed in his bid to save third money.

When Yes You Will broke into the clear, a wild cheer swept through the crowd of 20,376. The celebration lasted for hours and hours. The Maryland-bred Vertex won the Campbell last year but he was a champion and all the world knew it. Yes You Will, for all his partisan support (he was 9.20 to 1) still had to prove to the rest of the world that he belonged with the best.

In the paddock before the Campbell, Price remarked that he didn't know whether his colt belonged in the race. Running him was the only way to find out. On-and-On had beaten him a length and a half at Atlantic City last September, when Yes You Will (and On-and-On, as well) wasn't nearly as good as he is at present. All Price asked for was that his colt break with the field.

Yes You Will has started 26 times, won 13 races, been second 5 times and third once, winning $130,793. He lost two purses through disqualification. As a two-year-old he raced for $4,000 and $5,000. In 1959 he won the overnight Jennings Handicap and was beaten a nose in the Ventnor Turf Handicap at Atlantic City. This year, he won the Abraham Lincoln and Burch Handicap before adding the Campbell.

Yes You Will was bred in Westminster by his owner. The colt's dam, Yes She Will, won eight races and $9,550. Her first foal, Yes He Will (Bellwether), had to be destroyed as a yearling. The following year, 1955, she produced the winner Yes I Will to the cover of Colonel Mike. Then came Yes You Will. The mare has a Combat Boots three-year-old (Bet

He Will) and a Loser Weeper two-year-old (ESAR) now in training but unraced. She was barren to General Staff last year and is due to foal to Cochise about the middle of May. Her mate this year was still undetermined the night following the Campbell. However, Rough'n Tumble and *Tomy Lee were running in front.

The victory, timed in 1:44 $\frac{3}{5}$, was the biggest of Jockey Larry Adams' career. Two years ago he had won the \$50,000 Yankee Handicap aboard Foxcatcher Farm's Rose Trellis. New Orleans-born Adams says that Yes You Will doesn't lug in the general sense of the phrase. He explained himself by saying the colt "lays over" in the stretch because his outside forefoot is pigeon-toed, the pulling action of which turns the colt inward. Adams whipped from the port side for the last eighth of a mile.

The memory lingers on.

SHIP AHOY: This year if a man has a wind-broken horse he's got something good going for him, or so it seems. Clandestine, touched in the wind, won a pair of stakes at Santa Anita. My Old Flame, owned by Bruce S. Campbell and unsold at the Florida Breeders' Sale when she failed to meet her reserve after announcement had been made that she was not sound in the wind, since has won stakes at Hialeah and Sunshine Park. And now along comes Francis S., winner of the $30,000-added Governor's Gold Cup.

Wind affliction or no, Francis S., Tropical and Hialeah winner, was favored in the field of nine that contested for the March 19 prize. He reported promptly as the swallows that for some undetermined reason return to Capistrano that same date.

Owned by the Harbor View Farm of Louis E. Wolfson (whose company was instrumental in construction of the Baltimore Harbor Tunnel), Francis S. took the lead at the bell and improved his position from there. On top at the half by six, he was four and a half lengths in the van at the wire as Joe Culmone kept him interested all the way. In running the seven furlongs in 1:23 $\frac{3}{5}$ over a good track he looked anything but a wind-touched horse.

Alfred G. Vanderbilt's *Mahmoud—Irisen gray, Idolater, was much the best of the others, maintaining a $5\frac{1}{2}$ -length advantage over W. H. Bishop's Playgoer.

An orphaned son of the War Admiral mare, Blue Eyed Momo, Francis S. is by *Royal Charger, sire of Royal Native. Bred by Leslie Combs and John W. Hanes, he was purchased by his present owner at the 1958 Keeneland Summer Sales for $21,000. The Governor's Gold Cup was the colt's fourth win in 11 starts. He has been second three times and third twice, earning $38,410.

Ho Road. . . Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Love have a very appealing group of yearlings for Saratoga consignment. Included are fillies by Swaps and Tom Fool and a colt by *Turn-to. Mrs. Love's Prima Rondi, an Occupy—Vrondi filly purchased at the Bryson dispersal, won her debut at Aqueduct by eight lengths, setting a new five-furlong track record (:59 1/5) in the process. She was broken at The Addition by the Loves' 15-year-old twin daughters. Prima Rondi is prepping for the Fashion Stakes.

Maryland-bred horses have played prominent roles in the Campbell, the Free State's richest handicap. Maryland-bred Moon Maiden produced Joe Jones, winner in 1954, fourth in 1955, second in 1956. Social Outcast, victorious in the truly memorable 1955 renewal, was reared here. Find, second to Promised Land in 1958, was bred in Baltimore County. Vertex, bred at Sam Pistorio's farm, won last year. And now, Yes You Will, pride of Timonium!

Virginia Art Display

Outstanding paintings of hunting and racing events, or of the horse in its association with these events, are to be assembled in an exhibition of works by English, French and American painters at the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts, in Richmond, from April 1 to May 15, 1960.

The major English animal painters—Gilpin, Marshall, Seymour, Stubbs, Ward and Wootton; French artists—Daumier, De Dreux, Degas, Forain, Gericault and Manet; and the best-known American animal painter, Troye, will be represented by famous paintings of the horse and its relation to sporting events.

To assemble this group of paintings it was necessary to borrow from public and private collections in America and Europe, including the British Royal Collection and the Louvre. Some of the paintings acquired by the original owners are still in the homes of their descendants and have not before been publicly exhibited. Most of the paintings have never been previously exhibited in America.

Due to the traditional and active interest in hunting and racing in Virginia, the project was undertaken by this Museum, and is scheduled to open one week before the 1960 Deep Run Hunt Races are held in Richmond. Containing approximately 60 paintings, the size of the exhibition has been determined by the capacity of the Virginia Museum's Special Exhibition Gallery. A distinguished group of patrons headed by Dwight D. Eisenhower, President of the United States, and Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, and a British and American Committee under the chairmanship of Mr. Paul Mellon, are sponsoring the exhibition.

The paintings were chosen by a committee of selection, composed of Mr. Leslie Cheek, Jr., Director, Virginia Museum of Fine Arts; Mr. W. G. Constable, formerly Curator of Paintings, Museum of Fine Arts, Boston; Mr. Andrew Ritchie, Director, Yale University Art Gallery; Mr. Basil Taylor, Librarian, Royal College of Art, London; and Mr. John Walker, Director, National Gallery of Art, Washington. The catalogue was written by Mr. Basil Taylor.

Keeneland Summer Sales

The Keeneland Summer Sale of Yearlings, July 22 to 27 by the Breeders' Sales Company has brought 663 entries.

William S. Evans, sales company general manager, estimates that of this number 325 to 350 eventually will be catalogued for the three-day, six-session auction.

Consignors with ten or more entries to the sale include Leslie Combs II, Stoner Creek Stud, Hurstland Farm, Warner L. Jones, Jr., Duval A. Headley, Karsland Farm, Forest Retreat Farm, Pat Calhoun, Jr., Shawnee Farm, J. C. Metz, Hiddenaway Farm, Elmendorf Farm, and Darby Dan Farm.

Evans and George Swinebroad, executive vice-president of the company, now are screening the applications on the basis of pedigree.

When this task is completed, the youngsters which have passed on pedigree, will be inspected by Swinebroad for conformation and condition.

May first is the deadline for withdrawal from the sale (without a veterinary certificate).

Laurel Stakes

Six stakes will be contested for the Laurel's 29-day race meeting which opened on March 30. The half dozen added-money tests will be worth $150,000.

All except the opening-day Capitol Handicap will be distance races and will be held on Saturdays. The Capitol distance was six furlongs.

Three important changes have been made in the schedule. The Wilwyn Handicap has been shifted from the main course to the turf and its distance lengthened from a mile and 70 yards to a mile and a sixteenth, the Chesapeake route has been lengthened to a mile and an eighth and the Maryland Derby distance has been decreased to a mile.

The complete schedule:

March 30—$10,000 Capitol Handicap, three-year-olds and up, six furlongs.

April 2—$25,000 added Wilwyn Handicap, three-year-olds and up, mile and a sixteenth (turf).

April 9—$50,000 added Maturity, four-year-olds, mile and an eighth.

April 16—$25,000 added Chesapeake, three-year-olds, mile and an eighth.

April 23—$25,000 added Laurel Handicap, three-year-olds and up, mile and an eighth.

April 30—$15,000 added Maryland Derby, three-year-olds, Maryland foals, one mile.

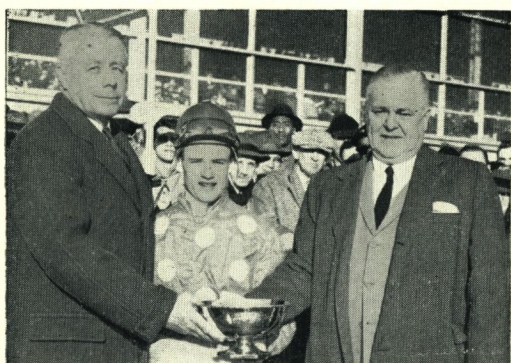

The Wilwyn was originally intended to be contested over the turf, but had to be shifted to the main course for its inaugural running last year because of construction work in the infield.

The elimination of all mile and a sixteenth dirt races comes about because a start on the track's new mile and a furlong oval would come practically on the lower turn.

Chesapeake Nominees

The Chesapeake Stakes, to be raced for the twenty-ninth time on April 16, has drawn a field of 34 three-year-olds, Laurel officials have announced.

The Chesapeake, a mile-and-an-eighth stake restricted to three-year-olds, will occupy the feature position on the third Saturday of the long spring session ending on May 3.

Of the 34 nominated to the $25,000-added event, 24 are Triple Crown candidates, a factor which could easily result in history repeating itself.

In 1937, War Admiral went on to win the Triple Crown after scoring in the Chesapeake and Citation followed the same trail in 1948. Whiskery in 1927 and Cavalcade in 1934 won both the Chesapeake and the Kentucky Derby but failed to make the roster of Triple Crown winners.

Among those named for the stake are Alfred Vanderbilt's Idolater, William Hal Bishop's Playgoer, Cain Hoy Stable's All Hands, Mrs. James A. Bohannon's Moslem Chief, Mrs. Ada Rice's New Commander, April Fool Farm's April Skies and Elkcarn Stable's Keenation.

A stakes winner from last year in the Chesapeake lineup is Merganser, hero of the Dover Stakes. The colt is owned by Walter M. Jeffords.

King Ranch named three in Brunette Downs, Dispere and Encanto, all of which showed excellent form in the recent trials at Columbia, S. C.

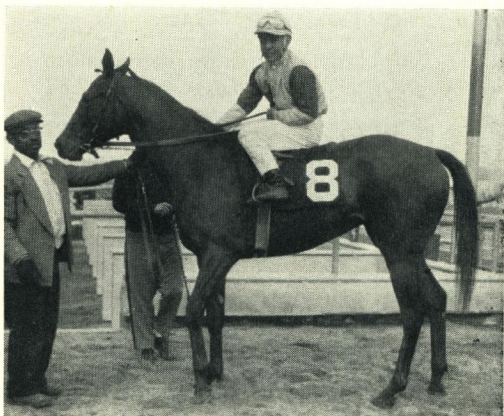

The largest single nominator to the Chesapeake was Maine Chance Farm with five. They were Beyond Desire, Lord Lyric, Never Give In, Roman Torch and What's Behind.

Brookmeade Stable entered Plutocracy and Sea Master while Cain Hoy named To Fortune in addition to All Hands.

REGISTRATION FEES INCREASE!

The fee for registration of foals as Maryland-breds will be $5 instead of $2, effective with foals of 1960.

The fee for late registration will be increased to $20 (from $10). This will affect foals of 1960 which are not registered before January 15 of their two-year-old year (1962).

The fact that costs of maintaining your Association have gone ahead while income has not increased, make it essential to the perpetuation of the organization to increase these fees.

Pony Club Question Bee

The 14th annual question bee of the Havre de Grace Chapter of the Harford Horse and Pony Club, held on March 25, was a fun-filled success.

Moderator for the evening was Mr. Henry L. Dentry of Bel Air. Questions were edited and compiled by Mr. George P. Titcomb of Churchville.

Nine-year old Betsy Lang, of Joppa, had the audience in her grip with her knowledge and poise. When asked by Mr. Dentry where the pastern of the horse was, she got up from her seat and pointed it out on a small model horse standing on the trophy table. From the distance at which Mr. Dentry was standing, he wasn't certain if little Betsy had pointed to the pastern so he asked her again. Betsy (who was almost back to her chair by this time) casually answered, "Between the fetlock and coronet!" She not only knew—she could even pronounce the words.

By the rules of the club, anyone winning his division may automatically continue in competition in the next higher level. Needless to say, Betsy won her division and went on to the next one where she outlasted many of her seniors. When she was finally defeated, she received a loud ovation from her competitors and the audience.

The results are as follows:

Div. A (6-12 years)—1. Betsy Lang, Joppa; 2. Leslie Sternberg, Churchville; 3. Kathy Reese, Harmony.

Div. B (12-21 years)—1. Irene Orantas, Bel Air; 2. Amy Carpenter, Aberdeen; 3. John Carpenter, Aberdeen.

Div. C (21 and over)—1. Mrs. Bonnie T. Watts, Havre de Grace; 2. Mrs. L. B. Gutman, Rising Sun; 3. Miss Alma Valcik, Abingdon.

THE MARYLAND HORSE

Howard County

BY ANNE CHRISTMAS

The opening of Maryland's timber racing season in Howard County was loaded with overtones of its neighboring Laurel Race Course, from a variety of viewpoints.

In the first place, the winner of the Howard County Hunt amateur race was owned by the president of Laurel, John D. Schapiro, who was on hand to watch his Irish import, Bally Guy, win the plate.

The victor won through the disqualification of a grand old ex-runner named Ben Cover, which came to this country from South America with a stablemate named Mister Black for Mr. Schapiro's own race, the Washington, D. C. International, at Laurel.

On that occasion, Ben Cover's Spanish-speaking entourage took home the pesos because he won the race just preceding the International and paid $90-odd (American). Converted for these past three years into a talented hunter for the attractive teen-age members of the Reid family of Monkton, Ben Cover made every jump a winning one at Howard County—but his 19-year-old rider, Marilyn Reid, cut the first flag on the 3½-mile course and was disqualified.

Thus, the trophy went to the Schapiro entry, which was flown here last fall after being selected for the Laurel owner by friends at the famous Ballsbridge sales in Ireland. Bally Guy was ridden in his first American appearance by John Bosley, III, a member of one of Maryland's most widely-known horsey families. Jackie has ridden and trained jumpers and flat horses ever since he was old enough to be boosted into a saddle.

Bosley, who sailed over the first fence not far behind Marilyn and her front-runner, saw her miss the flag and shouted to her, but she confessed later that she didn't see it until too late, and couldn't turn back.

Not many in the big crowd of onlookers at the Glenelg Country School, scene of the lovely rolling course, realized that Ben Cover had cut the flag. The cheering from Marilyn's well-wishers was long and loud as her big bay opened up a quarter-mile lead at one point of the course.

The field was well strung out during most of the running, with Bosley keeping his Irish horse under a steady hold until he crossed the 16th and last fence. Behind him at the finish was a member of the host hunt, Kingdon Gould, Jr., of Laurel, with his own Hurdy Gurdy. Official third place went to Mrs. Helen Baker Kelley, of Hagerstown, who was another owner-rider on Jerry Dee.

Marilyn Reid, her cheeks pink with self-anger, said she felt keenly about "my own stupidity" because her horse ran so brilliantly in his first effort over timber.

"I hate to admit it, but I remember that I also cut a flag in the Elkridge-Harford races last year," she added glumly.

Regarded by many horse-minded folk as one of the best girl riders in the sport, Marilyn is one of a hard-riding family. Her father, Pete Reid, rode Third Army to win the Maryland Hunt Cup in 1953, and her mother has owned and trained runners for many years. With her sisters, Marilyn is a regular afield with the Elkridge-Harford, and Ben Cover is her special favorite. With a sharp eye out for flags, she hopes to enter him in several of the Virginia and Maryland point-to-points during the rest of the cross-country season.

As for Bally Guy, Mr. Schapiro said he, too, probably would see further competition, pending developments in his future training. Sired by Speckled Band, he had been hunted in Ireland before coming here by plane, and this year was taken out some with Elkridge-Harford.

Of the four out of ten starters that failed to finish the course, the most seriously injured was Samuel Pfferkorn, Jr., whose pre-race favorite, Featherstone, tired and fell at the 14th fence. Sam received some cuts on his nose, but had it taped up and was able to witness the rest of the card. Featherstone had won two earlier runnings of the race, and a third victory could have retired the trophy for his rider, who is an honorary whipper-in for Howard County.

The co-feature was won by Charles A. Linton, who hunts with the Iron Bridge Hunt at Laurel, with his own Bishop. An open timber race over the same course as the amateur event, it attracted eight starters. Second went to John Griswold on Lord Salisbury, and third was an Arabian horse, Kristie Miller's Afmaar, one of the entries in the Arabs' endurance race at Laurel last International Day. Afmaar, also a veteran foxhunter, was ridden by Fritz Burkhardt. His 14-year-old owner is the daughter of Mrs. Garvin Tankersley, of Al-Marah Arabian Horse Farm, Bethesda.

Alan T. Clarke, one of the Free State's leading owner-breeder-trainers, sported a big smile as he saddled "my first winner for the year"—a 13-hand pony, which won the pint-sized flat race with no less a jockey than Clarke's nine-year-old daughter, Lillibet, in the saddle. Lillibet was given a leg up by her mother in her first venture in a race, and Daddy Clarke pointed out afterward that wife Lillian also served as hot-walker when the race was over. The Reid family, owners of Blackie, were in the cheering section.

Second in the pony race was Steve Borleski on Tony, with Susan Miller on By-Jingo third and John R. Devereux IV next on Dynamite.

The junior flat race was won by Dave Huff on Kitty's March, with Norman Fraley not far behind on Harvey's Moon. Third was a 13-year-old girl rider who goes by the nickname of "Mike" Ryan, from Laurel, on her Traveller.

At a recent meeting of the Howard County Horse Show Committee it was decided to join the Association of Maryland Horse Shows and a tentative date was set for October 1.

Silver Dollar Show

Something new has been added to the Cecil County Horse and Pony Show. The children are looking forward to collecting more silver dollars since the successful show they had last fall.

The big day of the show is May 15, held under the Maryland Horse Association, at the Gutman Pony Farm, which is three miles east of Rising Sun. There will be 32 classes for hunters, also Western events.

Members of the Cecil County Club are busy learning about barrel races, pole bending, and western trail rides so they can compete in the show, as primarily the show has been mainly hunters.

There will be a pet pony driving class and maybe one for mom and pop. Admission is free and delicious food served on the grounds. The public is invited. The show committee is trying to get entertainment for the show and for the social event and dance which is being held at the end of the show. Programs may be obtained by writing to the secretary—Mrs. Vernon E. McMullen, Rising Sun, Maryland.

Jay K. Secor Passes

Jay K. Secor, 48, of Monkton, passed away in his home on Friday, March 18.

Mr. Secor was a lawyer and well-known horseman.

He rode in the Maryland Hunt Cup three times and was the winner of the Fox Hunters Challenge Cup in 1946, the Rosetree Spring Maiden Cup in 1951 and the Middleburg Point to Point in 1957.

Born in Toledo, Ohio, he was graduated from Yale in 1935, where he had been a member of the polo team.

In World War II he was an Army lieutenant with the Fifth Armored Division in Europe. After the war he became a dairy farmer in Reisterstown. He studied law nights at the University of Maryland Law School and in 1955 received his degree.

He was a member of the law firm of Taylor and Martin in Towson.

Surviving Mr. Secor are his wife, Sarah Bosley Secor; two brothers, George and James Secor of Toledo; a sister, Mrs. Duane Stranahan of Toledo, and six children, Elizabeth, Susan, John Bosley, Steven Balog, Timothy Jay and Nicholas Powers Secor.

PHA Schooling Show

Each year in April the Professional Horsemen's Association has a schooling show to permit exhibitors to give their horses experience. This year the show will be on April 24 at the Elkridge Harford Hunt starting at 9:00 a.m. As usual, there will be two divisions for ponies, Large and Small. There will also be the Green Working, and Regular Working, Junior and Open Jumper.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Evans of Unionville, Pennsylvania and Mr. Robert Tindle, of Valley Forge, will be the judges.

Post Entries will be $1 per class and ribbons will be given for each place. This show, although a schooling show, is usually widely attended.

JOHNNY NERUD, trainer, says—

“Absorbine helped keep Gallant Man in top racing form”

Now retired to stud, this game, courageous Irish-bred was invincible at distances over a mile. On Gallant Man, while he was in training, Johnny Nerud consistently used Absorbine.

Absorbine is particularly good for its tightening and cooling qualities, an excellent body bracer and astringent. Absorbine relieves pain, swelling and sores, and helps a horse relax and cool out normally.

A large bottle of Absorbine, with complete instructions, is sold for only $2.50 at any druggist's.

W. F. Young, Inc., Springfield, Mass.
In Canada: W. F. Young, Inc., Montreal 19, P. Q.

Nerud is as well known for his colorful caps as he is for his winners.

Preakness Stakes is to be run at Pimlico Race Course in Baltimore, Md., on Saturday, May 21. For three-year-olds at scale weights. Distance—1 3/16 miles. Purse $150,000 added (richest race in the world for three-year-olds).

Belmont Stakes is to be run at Belmont Race Course, Elmont, L. I., N. Y., Saturday, June 11. For three-year-olds at scale weights. Distance—1 1/2 miles. Purse—$125,000 added.

The Derby, first run in 1875, will have its 86th running this year. The Preakness, inaugurated in 1873, is scheduled for its 84th running. The Belmont, which dates back to 1867 at Jerome Park, is the oldest and longest of the Triple Crown races. This year's running will be the 92nd.

The Derby attracted 142 nominations; the Preakness—161; the Belmont—143. Ninety-one three-year-olds (including one filly) have been named to all three Triple Crown races. Supplementary nominations may be made to the Preakness ($10,000) up to May 11 and Belmont Stakes ($5,000) up until five days prior to the running. There is no provision for supplementary entry in the Kentucky Derby.

AMHS Affiliates With American

The board of directors of the Association of Maryland Horse Shows, Inc., has announced its affiliation with the American Horse Show Association and its intention to continue efforts to conform Maryland class specifications to American. Major changes will be in the pony and hunter divisions. The rules committee is working diligently toward having the 1960 Maryland rule book out during the first week of April.

Plans are well underway for a successful show season with 22 member shows at present and more expected. In preparation for the coming season, the measurement committee has announced that ponies on the western shore will be measured on Sunday, April 24 from 12 to 3 p. m. at Timonium. Eastern shore ponies will be measured at the shows.

The public relations committee stressed the fact that horse showing in general has a history of inadequate publicity. To improve the situation, plans were set forth which include continued society coverage, more extensive magazine coverage, inclusion in the sports sections of local papers and direct communication with individual show publicity committees. It is the desire of the committee to increase the spectator-gate receipts.

El Mono winning The Widener, setting track record of 2:01 for 1¼ miles.

You've looked at the rest, now breed to the best—

EL MONO

Breeding for race-horses is a percentage game. Few get as good as their sires. Fewer still get to be better. Racing class is the only true yardstick we can use in the selection of a stallion. On breeding's totem pole, blood alone, conformation, brother to or "might have been if he hadn't," without racing class, are purely bonus figures.

EL MONO had racing class. He proved this when as a four-year old he won two of winter racing's most famous classics. The McLennan Memorial and The Widener Handicap. Pitted against the handicap stars of the turf he ran the mile and one-eighth of the McLennan in 1:48.2 and then, one week later, ran the fastest 1¼ mi. in the history of Hialeah racing, winning the Widener in 2:01.

EL MONO has a 90.9 fertility record. (Blood-Horse 11/30/57). Has producing power. Out of a total of 27 starters to Dec. 1959, 24 have won many races. He is one of the very few Maryland sires to make the Blood-Horse Earnings Index. He was Florida's leading sire in 1958.

EL MONO has all of the bonus factors mentioned above. His sire, Head Play, won many of America's racing classics, including the Preakness. His dam, Hand Organ, was a high-grade race mare and she is still producing winners. The rest of his immediate family is absolutely top-class.

Note:

In answer to the many racing fans and breeders who have asked me, El Mono arrived here at my farm from Florida late in the breeding season four years ago. As a result he served only three mares that year. The three produce of these mares are in training and will make their first starts this year as three-year-olds. In 1960 El Mono will be represented by seven two-year-old Maryland-breds.

PONY BITS

by Susan E. Archer

Remember, April 10 is the date of the Elkridge-Harford Hunt Pony Club Combined Training Event! Everyone is invited to attend.

Finally, after much trouble with snow and weather a rating rally was held at Fox Hill Farm, Fallston, on February 28. Now, all but 15 of the 100 members of the Elkridge-Harford Hunt Pony Club are rated. Several tried for higher ratings under Col. Howard C. Fair, President of the United States Pony Clubs.

Jon Gartrell, of the Green Spring Hunt Pony Club, and Maggie Hower, of the Elkridge-Harford Hunt Pony Club, both received their "B" ratings. Congratulations!

In explanation of the Pony Club ratings, an "A" rider is a top instructor, horseman and sportsman; a "B" is a top rider and capable of caring for a hunting horse. A "C" rider is one that can jump well enough to hunt. "C's" however, are not allowed to hunt with chaperonage, unless by special permission. A "D" rider is one who is starting to ride alone.

The Pony Club rider not only rides, but is also taught stable management, and simple veterinary medicine (ailments, lamenesses and diseases and when to call a veterinarian). The aim of the Pony Club is to have a happy child on a happy mount.

Many requirements have to be met in order to pass a rating test, and believe me, these are stiff. A Pony Clubber who meets these requirements and passes his rating test is to be congratulated on his hard work.

Oldfields' girls have had Mrs. J. C. Rathborne's good pony, Little Parson, this winter. He is a very popular pony and the girls miss him.

The girls are now riding Mrs. Graham Boyce's Honey Bee, the good old show pony. He is a good going pony and a working pony.

The school shows are scheduled as follows:
May 7—McDonogh School—open to all schools.
May 14—Interscholar Championship Show at Old McDonogh Show grounds. Schools in competition are McDonogh, Garrison Forest, St. Timothy's, Oldfields, and perhaps Foxcroft, Gunston, and Hannah More. Each school will have a team of six riders.

Horse and Pony Club Banquet

The fourth annual banquet of the Havre de Grace Chapter of the Harford Horse and Pony Club was held recently at the Moose Hall in Aberdeen with 70 members and guests present.

After Mr. Richard Van Auken delivered the invocation, a delicious turkey dinner was served.

The election of this year's officers was held with a unanimous vote for the following: Miss Alma Valcik, of Abingdon, president; Miss Becky Cornett, Darlington, first vice-president; Miss Carol Sadera, Abingdon, second vice-president; Miss Nancy Goll, Havre de Grace, corresponding secretary; Miss Sue Barnes, Havre de Grace, recording secretary and Mr. Billy Martin, Havre de Grace, treasurer.

Following the election, Mrs. William G. Yates, acting as mistress of ceremonies, presented awards to club members. First was the Perpetual Trophy awarded by the Humane Society of Harford County to the member attaining the most points for the year in working on the club's various projects. This, along with a smaller cup to be kept permanently by the winner, was won by Miss Sue Barnes. In second place was Miss Nancy Goll, with Miss Carol Sadera in third place and Miss Jane Titcomb in fourth.

THE MARYLAND HORSE

The Horsemanship Trophy, awarded to the individual rider having the most horsemanship points from the club's spring and summer shows, the 25-mile trail ride, and the gymkhana, went to Miss Sue Barnes with Miss Nancy Goll having the second highest number of points; Billy Martin was third; Ralph DeBonis, fourth; and Jane Gayley, fifth.

The Sportsmanship Trophy was a pleasant surprise to everyone, for it was awarded by an anonymous donor who was so impressed with the outstanding sportsmanship of two riders at last year's show. The recipients of this were the Misses Deanne Gutman, of Cecil County and Sue Barnes.

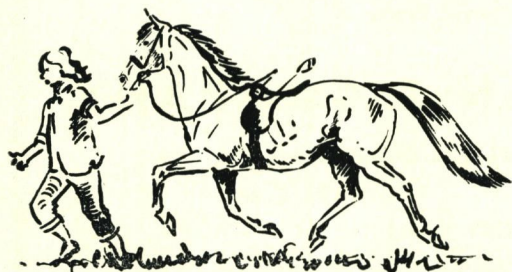

Slow-motion movies taken at one of last year's shows by Dr. Morgan L. Washburn were then shown and enjoyed by all with dancing following.

Hunt Club Opens Stable to Race Horses

Green Spring Valley Hunt Club, one of the oldest recognized hunts in the country, has for years operated its own stable facilities for the use of the members and for the hunt staff mounts exclusively. The Club has now agreed to permit these facilities to be used by reputable outside owners and trainers.

The stable facilities, with 40 roomy box stalls, are operated as the full responsibility of Mr. Alfred Fagan, whose experience covers more than 30 years as a manager of racehorse stables and as a trainer and owner.

It is felt that there is a great need for an experienced horse operation in this area at reasonable rates, convenient to most of Maryland's tracks. The Club stables are within 30 minutes of most of the half-mile and mile tracks, and adjacent to Sagamore Farm, where Discovery stood, and where Loser Weeper and Native Dancer are currently offered.

Available for use by boarders are a modern six-horse van, experienced exercise boys and stable men, and equipment for clipping and shoeing, as well as limited veterinary care.

Many level blue grass pastures surround the stables, all of which are fenced with sturdy post-and-rail fences. The pastures have fresh running streams.

Mr. Fagan said that the rates for summer and winter turn outs, legging up, or straight boarding, on the most part are substantially lower than the prevailing scale. Further information may be obtained by writing to Alfred Fagan, at Glyndon, or calling Tennyson 3-4884.

Bank Roll Horses

Eight colts and one filly which won $100,000 or more in purses in 1959 are named for the Preakness at Pimlico on May 21. They are Warfare, Venetian Way, Tompion, Bally Ache, Vital Force, Weatherwise, Noble Noor, T. V. Lark and the filly My Dear Girl.

J. William Graham Dies

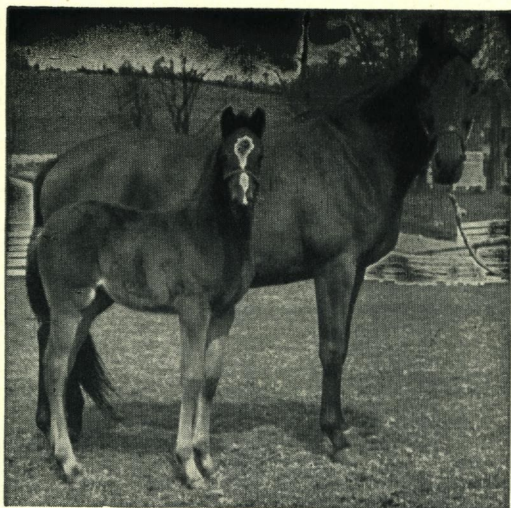

J. William Graham, 65, secretary of the State Racing Commission, died on March 11, at Anne Arundel General Hospital in Annapolis after a long illness.

Mr. Graham, who was born in Annapolis, made his home at 94 Sellers road there. He was a member of St. Mary's Church, a past commander of the Annapolis Yacht Club, and a veteran of Army service in World War I and on the Mexican border.

He had served as a member of the Annapolis City Council for ten years and was a physical training instructor and athletic coach at the Naval Academy.

After joining the racing commission in 1939, he was appointed secretary by Governor O'Connor in 1945.

Mr. Graham is survived by two daughters, Mrs. H. Warren McCann, of Hagerstown, and Mrs. Hugh Roberts, of Annapolis; a sister, Mrs. Anna Roe, of Charleston, S. C., and five grandchildren.

Mr. Maryland Breeder:

ONLY FIVE (5) horses in the U.S. ranked above DICTAR, (as a three-year-old) in the year-end handicap of The Morning Telegraph in 1953. He also ranked well up on John B. Campbell's Experimental Handicap as a stakes performer at two. He also was a top stakes performer at Santa Anita as a six-year-old.

DICTAR either won, or placed, in these important Stakes—SHEVLIN ($\frac{7}{8}$); PROVIDENCE ($1\frac{1}{8}$, new Stake record); TRAVERS ($1\frac{1}{4}$, 2nd to Native Dancer); DISCOVERY ($1\frac{1}{8}$); LAWRENCE REALIZATION ($1\frac{5}{8}$); OHIO DERBY ($1\frac{1}{8}$, new track record); GREY LAG ($1\frac{1}{8}$); the SAN GABRIEL Hdcp. ($1\frac{1}{4}$ Turf); T. DICTAR ran with the best—beat the best. Professional horsemen will recognize and appreciate his rare courage and stamina as a class performer. He won at $5\frac{1}{2}$ furlongs and finished a close second in the $1\frac{5}{8}$ -mile Lawrence Realization. He was only a handicapper's notch below,

DOUBLE BRANDY

FROM DOUBLE

BRANDY'S DAM

The last race of the day (Feb. 28) at Auteuil, a $1,600 hurdle allowance event at one mile and fifteen-sixteenths, ended in yet another victory—his sixth in a row—for Tais Toi (Shut Out—Tien Lan, by Blue Larkspur), owned by Prince Aly Khan and bred in Virginia by the Nydrie Stud. He won by half a length from Marius Arnaud's Sully after losing and regaining the lead three times. This rather eccentric four-year-old colt, who evidently likes to have a horse to run with him, might be the best in France at his specialty.—William Fain in the Morning Telegraph

Double Brandy
br. h. 1946

DOUBLE BRANDY, stakes winner of $130,675. Won the Pimlico Cup, Bryan and O'Hara, Omnibus, Brandywine, and Southern Maryland Hdcp. Placed in the Brooklyn Hdcp., and other stakes. During his racing career he defeated such horses as Cochise, Count-a-Bit, Pilaster, Royal Governor, One Hitter, John's Joy, Colonel Mike, Loser Weeper, Sun Bahram, Three Rings, etc.

DOUBLE BRANDY, although a great stayer himself, has proven that he can get horses with extreme early speed, such as the stakes winners PRO-BRANDY, PAJAMA TOPS in the United States, NABUCO in Puerto Rico, and the winners Koko Dozo, Brandy Fib, Legal Limit, Symphonia, Stilbo, Singapore Sling, Jac-A-Muffin, etc.

DOUBLE BRANDY in 1959 was bred to 31 mares, 22 reported in foal, 5 no report, 4 barren.

His dam, Tien Lan, also is the dam of SHUT UP, a top stakes winner in France and TAIS TOI, top hurdler. Both are owned by Aly Khan.

Betsy Ross is full sister to BATEAU, one of the great American race mares, and dam of the stake winner BANNER WAVES and numerous other winners.

THE HEART OF HIS PEDIGREE

ASSEMBLYMAN was one of the better 3-year-olds of 1957. He won the $25,000 Narragansett Sophomore Special easily from Ambehaving and the $20,000 Independence Day Stakes at Narragansett from Big Paddy and Inswept. He was also second to Promised Land in the Knickerbocker Handicap and Lawrence Realization Stakes, second to Vertex in the Boardwalk Handicap and second to Manteau in the Yankee. He won at 2 and 3, and earned $87,799.

The heart of Assemblyman's pedigree is the heart of the tremendously successful Beaumont Stud in Kentucky. He is a son of Menow (sire of Tom Fool and Capot) and is out of the Hurricane Handicap winner Libba, out of the brilliant daughter of Man o' War and Alcibiades, Salaminia. The latter won the Alabama Stakes and the Ladies' and Gallant Fox Handicaps. Salaminia produced, to the cover of Menow's sire *Pharamond II, the $105,710 stakes winner Athenia, the dam of Aesthete. The dam of Assemblyman's sire and the granddam of Assemblyman's dam is Alcibiades, one of the great foundation mares of modern American Turf history.
